

Part 1 – Introduction

1.2.3 Enforcement Policy

Port of Workington Enforcement Policy

Statutory powers exist to regulate the conduct of vessels within the jurisdiction of the Port of Workington. On occasions regulations may need to be enforced.

It is recognised that most users will voluntarily comply with the law. However, firm action including prosecution where appropriate will be taken against those who flout the law or act irresponsibly.

The Port will provide information and advice in plain language on the rules that apply and will disseminate this as widely as possible.

The duties of the Port will be undertaken in a fair, equitable and consistent manner and in liaison with other authorities and enforcement bodies as appropriate.

Signed:

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Mike Smith'.

Date: 1st March 2018

Mike Smith
Assistant Director Capital Programme & Property